The second purple candle in the Advent wreath is the Bethlehem or Preparation Candle—a Savior will be born in Bethlehem. Be ready!

"Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall declare your praise."

Why do we light the Advent candles?
Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the Light of Life."

Second Sunday of Advent/ Segundo Domingo de Adviento

We continue to see large numbers of clients each week. We are grateful for any donation of food. Please continue your generosity especially with the following:

Canned Beans Dried Beans Pasta Sauce Hamburger Helper
Shampoo Laundry Detergent Paper bags

Baby World: We are very low on large size diapers and baby toiletries and would appreciate any donations. We have been distributing warm clothing and jackets thanks to the wonderful donations of these items.

We couldn't have done our Thanksgiving program without the help of the Knights of Columbus. Thanks to Terry Peffers and the Knights for picking up and delivering 150 turkeys and food. Thanks also to the help of the parish staff for volunteering to distribute these Thanksgiving baskets.

ANGEL TREE

The Angel Tree will be displayed in the back of the Church with several different colors of angels. We have diversified the recipients of our gifts to give parishioners options on their donations. We will again be partnering with the public elementary and middle school in our community to offer gifts to the children. We also have angels for nursing home patients from a local facility. Another option is to contribute toward the education of a child in the Catholic elementary school in our sister parish in Patzun, Guatemala. We have lost several sponsors over the last few years and will be short in our contribution to this very important resource for these children. If you have any questions about these programs, contact Lupe Hernandez at (817) 284-4811.

Please return the gifts by December 4, 2016 and remember to attach the angel to the outside of the gift when it is returned.

Please come support our parish Mission Dinner this Sunday, December 4, 2016 at 6:00 p.m. in the Gymnasium. There will be Fair Trade coffee and Christmas items for sale as well as an opportunity to sponsor a scholarship for a child in Patzun.

Scripture Reflection/ Reflexiones de Escrituras

We journey closer to Christmas and our anticipation heightens. Last week Jesus spoke of the end times, we now hear John the Baptist telling us to, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." We must live our lives as Jesus has asked if we want to be part of the kingdom.

Isaiah tells us that we need to turn our hearts to God. The spirit of the Lord shall come, bestowing upon us the gifts we receive at Confirmation: wisdom; understanding; counsel; strength; knowledge; and fear of the Lord (Isaiah left out piety). The Messiah is so powerful and His message so strong that it will bring peace and justice to all creatures.

Paul tells us to live a Christian life means we must live at peace with each other. During Advent we should examine our relationship with God and also look at our relationships with others. Now is the time to become reconciled with one another. Now is the time to bring peace into strained relationships.

John the Baptist asks us to prepare, but so do the merchants. John wants us to prepare for eternity; the merchants want us to prepare for a particular event. Yes, we want to have a wonderful Christmas, but if we are not good stewards and live the gospel message, eternity will be a living Hell, literally.

As a reminder Thursday is a Holy Day of Obligation. We celebrate Mary's Immaculate Conception. In 1854, Pope Pius IX declared that the Blessed Virgin Mary was from the very first instant of her conception, exempt from sin and clothed in sanctifying grace. It is a wonderful time to gather in prayer as community and thank Mary for saying YES to God!

Al acercarnos a la Navidad aumenta nuestra anticipación. La semana pasada Jesús nos habló del final de los tiempos, ahora escuchamos a Juan el Bautista decirnos, "Conviértanse, porque ya está cerca el Reino de los cielos." Debemos vivir nuestras vidas como Jesús nos lo ha pedido si queremos ser parte del reino.

Isaías nos dice que tenemos que poner nuestros corazones hacia Dios. El espíritu del Señor vendrá, otorgándonos los regalos que recibimos en la Confirmación: sabiduría, entendimiento, consuelo, fortaleza, conocimiento, y miedo al Señor (Isaías no mencionó la piedad). El Mesías es poderoso y su mensaje es fuerte que traerá la paz y la justicia a todas las criaturas.

Pablo nos dice que el vivir una vida Cristiana significa que debemos vivir en paz unos con otros. Durante el Adviento debemos examinar nuestra relación con Dios y también darnos cuenta de nuestras relaciones con los demás. Este es el momento que debemos reconciliarnos con los demás. Ahora es el momento de traer la paz a las relaciones tensas.

Juan el Bautista y los comerciantes nos piden que nos preparemos. Juan quiere que nos preparemos para la eternidad; los comerciantes quieren que nos preparemos para un evento en particular. Si, queremos tener una Navidad maravillosa, pero si no somos buenos administradores y no vivimos mensaje del evangelio, la eternidad va hacer lateramente un Infierno.

Como recordatorio el jueves es Día de Obligación. Celebramos la Inmaculada Concepción de María. En 1854, el Papa Pio IX declaro que la Santísima Virgen María desde el primer instante de su concepción libre de todo pecado y vestida con la gracia santificante. Es un maravilloso momento para unirnos en oración con toda comunidad y darle gracias a María ¡por haberle dicho SI a Dios!
