Scripture Reflection

In our reading from Malachi, we are assured that we shall be cared for when the Lord comes if we have lived our lives according to the ways of the Lord.

In our Gospel Jesus speaks of the destruction of the Jerusalem temple, and speaks of false prophets. He also tells us that we will endure suffering and hardship because of our belief in Him. In both readings we must understand that if we believe, if we follow in His footsteps, that we shall attain everlasting life. We can fall into the trap of planning for everything as it pertains to our human existence, but fail to consider how our actions today can determine where we shall spend eternity.

Do you realize that our actions, our decisions, and our relationships, to name just a few, are all determining how we spend eternity? On judgment day it won't matter if we had stocks and bonds or if we didn't even have a savings account. It won't matter if we kicked the winning soccer goal, but how we played. It won't matter how many cars we had, how big our house was, or how many televisions we owned, it will matter if we remembered the poor, took care of our Church and responded to those in need. Eternity is ours with the correct actions, the choice is ours!

Reflexiones de Escrituras

En la lectura de Malaquías, nos asegura que vamos a ser atendidos cuando venga el Señor si hemos vividos nuestras vidas de acuerdo con las enseñanzas del Señor.

En el Evangelio Jesús habla de la destrucción del templo de Jerusalén, y habla de los profetas falsos. También nos dice que vamos a experimentar sufrimiento y momentos difíciles por creer en él. En las dos lecturas tenemos que entender que si creemos, si seguimos sus pasos, va a tener vida eterna. Podemos caer en la trampa de planear todo de acuerdo a nuestra existencia humana, pero fallamos en considerar como nuestras acciones de hoy pueden determinar dónde vamos a pasar la eternidad.

Se dan cuenta que nuestras acciones, nuestras decisiones, y nuestras relaciones, solo por nombrar algunas, todas determinan ¿Cómo vamos a pasar la eternidad? El día del juicio no importara si teníamos acciones y bonos o si tenemos una cuenta de ahorros. No importa si anotamos el gol ganador, pero como jumaos. No importara cuantos carros teníamos, que tan grande era nuestra casa, o cuantos televisores teníamos, lo que importara es si nos acordamos de los pobres, si cuidamos nuestra iglesia, si les respondimos a aquellos en necesidad. La eternidad es de nosotros con las acciones correctas, ¡es nuestra decisión!
